

1. Letter
2. Handwritten
3. August 7, 1878
4. Alma Coflcomedfin Reminiscence, writer
5. There is no specific audience.
6.
  - a. The first thing that I think is important is that the stage was kind of “jerky”
  - b. Another thing that I think is important is that the author thought that Montana was really beautiful.
  - c. Finally the third thing that I think was important was that they were only allowed twenty five pounds on the stage.
7. I think that this document was written to explain how a trip into Montana was in the 1870s.
8. Evidence that the document was written to explain how getting to Montana is in paragraph two as stated “The stage proved to be a “jerky” and well worthy of the name. There were two seats inside facing each other, with room for three on each seat.”
9.
  - a. One thing about life in the US was that Montana’s population was growing quickly.
  - b. Another thing about life in the US was that new people coming into Montana were welcomed.
10. What made you want to come into Montana?